The Royal Manor House, Kouklia is one of the finest surviving monuments of Frankish architecture in Cyprus. The building also houses an archaeological museum, which records the rich history of human activity in the region from about 2800 BC. Palaipaphos was a city-kingdom of Cyprus and one of the most celebrated pilgrimage centres of the ancient Greek world. It was the site of the sanctuary of Aphrodite, the oldest remains of which date back to the 12th century BC.
